Florida Medical Clinic welcomes HeartCare Institute of Tampa

We are pleased to announce the joining of two great teams. The HeartCare Institute of Tampa and Florida Medical Clinic set their goals on heartfelt heartcare. Our cardiology team at HeartCare offers a range of care, beginning with prevention that will help keep each patients heart beating strong. Our HeartCare services provide solutions from start to finish such as, Nuclear Cardiology, Tilt Table Testing, Pace Maker and ICD maintenance, a Heart Failure Program and more.

Dr. Hal Applebaum, born in Miami, has been practicing cardiology in Tampa since 1979. He brings an abundance of experience and knowledge to our HeartCare team. Dr. Arlene Lobo joined the HeartCare Institute in 2002. She received her Bachelor of Science degree from Rochester Institute of Technology and continued her education at State University of New York at Buffalo in the School of Medicine. Dr. Roberto Medina completed his cardiology fellowship at Hahnemann University Hospital in Pennsylvania. He has lived in the state of Florida for over 20 years. Dr. Thomas Woodrow moved to Florida in 1974 and later completed his fellowship at the University of South Florida. Dr. Richard Bowerman, born in Crawfordsville, Indiana, completed his cardiology fellowship at the University of South Florida School of Medicine in 1992. All five team members are board certified doctors of Internal Medicine and Cardiovascular Diseases. With five physicians and three registered nurse practitioners, your heart is in good hands.
